Premise

This policy is applicable to our online and mobile website, applications and digital services and clarified data collection, usage and sharing practices among Si Group, its affiliates and unaffiliated third parties. You consent to the data collection, use, disclosure and storage practices described in this privacy policy when you use any of our website based services , including when you access any content or videos on our website.

Policy Details

Information collected by us:

We receive both information that is directly provided to us, such as personal information you provide and information that is passively or automatically collected from you, such as anonymous information collected from your browser or device. In this Privacy Policy, we refer to all of this as the "Information".

Information provided by user:

For some Services, you can register, send enquiry form, subscribe to one of our services such as our online newsletters or participate in one of our online forums. In the course of these various offerings, we often seek to collect from you various forms of information, such as: name, company name, email, job title, telephone, country, subject, message and reason for download.

Passively collected information:

A representative, non-exhaustive list of the types of automatically collected information may include: network or Internet protocol address and type of browser you are using (e.g., Chrome, Safari, Firefox, Internet Explorer), the type of operating system you are using, (e.g., Microsoft Windows or Mac OS), the name of your Internet service provider and domains used by such providers, mobile network, device identifiers (such as an Apple IDFA or an Android Advertising ID), device settings, browser settings, the web pages of the Services you have visited, Webpages visited before and after you visit our website, the type of handheld or mobile device used to view the Service (e.g., iOS, Android), location information, and the content and advertisements you have accessed, seen, forwarded and/or clicked on.

Use of cookies and other technologies:

Cookies are small, usually encrypted text files, which are used to perform various functions such as storing your preferences, allowing you to easily navigate between web pages, and improving overall user experience. These are located in browser directories and are useful since they have the ability to recognise a user's PC or mobile device, and customise the user experience by transmitting small amounts of information back to the site. Cookies also help 3rd party agencies to collect information about user profiles, their interactions, actions, and behaviour, which help site owners to improve components and functionalities available on the website.

Deleting and blocking cookies:

By using our website, you agree to provide us your implied consent to the placement of cookies on your device, as explained above. In case you wish to remove these cookies from your device, you can delete these via your browser settings. You can also adjust your browser settings to block these cookies. However, please be informed that deleting or blocking cookies will adversely affect your user experience as certain parts of the website may stop functioning. User discretion is advised while deleting or blocking cookies.

Use of information:

Si Group collects this information to make better business decisions towards our mutual advantage, support the activities you choose to engage in, and provide higher quality solutions and services to you and your customers. We will not sell, share, or rent this information, for commercial purposes, to any person or organisation. We will:

1. Provide and communicate with you about the Services with us
2. Fulfill your requests regarding the Services, including without limitation requests for newsletters and notifications
3. Respond to your inquiries
